Worship is Great at Antioch

Welcome

It is always good to have the opportunity to worship with God's people. We are glad you took advantage of that opportunity today.

If you are a visitor, we hope that you will visit with us again soon.

Mission Jar

During our business meeting on July 18th three suggestions were mentioned as places for our Mission Jar funds to be sent this time. They were Bible Sticks, Water for Christ, and Missionary Bryan Risner.

Since services were canceled last Wednesday evening because we had no electricity, we were unable to do this. Therefore we will be selecting where these funds will go Wednesday evening.

Great Grandson

The fourteenth great grandchild of Cal Mass was born last Monday in Arkadelphia. Lonnie Hollingsworth, Jr. weighed 7 lbs. and 10 ozs. and is the son of Lonnie and Sheniah Hollingsworth.

A Heart for Praise

Louis Albert Banks tells of an elderly Christian man, a fine singer, who learned that he had cancer of the tongue and that surgery was required. In the hospital after everything was ready for the operation, the man said to the doctor, "Are you sure I will never sing again?"

The surgeon found it difficult to answer his question. He simply shook his head no. The patient then asked if he could sit up for a moment. "I've had many good times singing the praises of God," he said. "And now you tell me I can never sing again. I have one song that will be my last. It will be of gratitude and praise to God."

There in the doctor's presence the man sang softly the words of Isaac Watts' hymn,
*I'll praise my Maker while I've Breath,
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler power;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures."*

Leave It to the Lord

The citizens of Feldkirch, Austria, didn't know what to do. Napoleon's massive army was preparing to attack. Soldiers had been spotted on the heights above the little town, which was situated on the Austrian border.

A council of citizens was hastily summoned to decide whether they should try to defend themselves or display the white flag of surrender. It happened to be Easter Sunday, and the people had gathered in the local church.

The pastor rose and said, "Friends, we have been counting on our own strength, and apparently that has failed. As this is the day of our Lord's resurrection, let us just ring the bells, have our services as usual, and leave the matter in His hands. We know only our weakness, and not the power of God to defend us."

The council accepted his plan and the church bells rang. The enemy, hearing the sudden peal, concluded that the Austrian army had arrived during the night to defend the town. Before the service ended, the enemy broke camp and left.
